To commemorate the Sept. 17, 1787 signing of the Constitution, Congress has designated September 17th of each year as CONSTITUTION DAY and September 17-23 of each year as CONSTITUTION WEEK.

In 2004, Public Law 108-447, section 111 was passed requiring the following:

“Each educational institution that receives Federal funds for a fiscal year shall hold an educational program on the US Constitution on Sept. 17 for the students served by the educational institution.” (Last page of The Constitution of the United States handbook.)

Teachers, please hang on to the email addresses of these Presenters. When you start planning Constitution Day, or anything that deals with the constitution, you can email and schedule extremely knowledgeable people from our group to meet with your classes. To have this kind of knowledge in “your back yard,” is certainly a blessing for both you and your students.

Thank you for participating in our  . . . We certainly hope you learned some new things and changed a few misconceptions.
